You're About To Discover The #1 Secret To Making Money From Home And Escape The 9-5 Rat Race If I only had one thing to tell anyone out there who is either new to the job market or is graduating, that would thing would be:"Jobs suck! Well, at least the old-fashioned version of a job where you have to do something you don't really like from 9-5 and are simply paid for your time to only slave yourself on the job." I like calling this the 'sell your time' personal business model where you literally exchange your time for money. In other words, you sell your time to someone and they pay you for it. That's not right. If you've been there, and actually experienced what I'm talking about, you'll know that this personal business model actually sucks. I'd say you need to do things differently; work in your PJs or underwear, avoid the commute, respond to emails from a hammock as you sip coffee, and so on. I'm sure you've heard the benefits of working from home-and yes, they are all true. As you read this book, you will discover some things that will surprise you about what it's truly like when you don't have to wake up early to beat the traffic snarl up. How to Sell Anything to Anybody - Joe Girard

Joe Girard was an example of a young man with perseverance and determination. Joe began his working career as a shoeshine boy. He moved on to be a newsboy for the Detroit Free Press at nine years old, then a dishwasher, a delivery boy, stove assembler, and home building contractor. He was thrown out of high school, fired from more than forty jobs, and lasted only ninety-seven days in the U.S. Army. Some said that Joe was doomed for failure. He proved them wrong.

When Joe started his job as a salesman with a Chevrolet agency in Eastpointe, Michigan, he finally found his niche. Before leaving Chevrolet, Joe sold enough cars to put him in the Guinness Book of World Records as 'the world's greatest salesman' for twelve consecutive years. Here, he shares his winning techniques in this step-by-step book, including how to:

- o Read a customer like a book and keep that customer for life
- o Convince people reluctant to buy by selling them the right way
- o Develop priceless information from a two-minute phone call
- o Make word-of-mouth your most successful tool

Informative, entertaining, and inspiring, HOW TO SELL ANYTHING TO ANYBODY is a timeless classic and an indispensable tool for anyone new to the sales market.

"A touching poetic exploration of budding sexuality, the mysticism of religion, and family dynamics. Shraya's text and Neufeld's illustrations capture the confusion, innocence, and de3lusions of adolescence bang on." -Brian Francis, author of Fruit I am often mistaken for a girl. Not just because I like to wear dresses or makeup. I don't mind. My parents are from India and here is not quite home. School isn't always safe and neither is my body. But I feel safe in my love for God. And God loves hair. First published to acclaim in 2011, Vivek Shraya's first book, now published by Arsenal Pulp Press for the first time, is a collection of twenty-one short stories following a tender, intellectual, and curious child of Indian origin as he navigates the complex realms of sexuality, gender, racial politics, religion, and belonging. Told with the poignant insight and honesty that only the voice of a young mind can convey, God Loves Hair is a moving and ultimately joyous portrait of youth that celebrates diversity in all shapes, sizes, and colors. A Lambda Literary Award finalist in the category of children's books. The stories are accompanied by the award-winning full-color illustrations of Juliana Neufeld. Vivek Shraya is a multimedia artist, working in the mediums of music, performance, literature, and film. He is also author of She of the Mountains.

Profitable Publishing Today: Start Earning Money as an Author Without Quitting Your Day Job - Kim Staflund 2019-09-29

The best way to build a profitable book publishing business is to start writing on part-time basis. Keep the security of your regular full-time job to ensure a steady flow of income while you write. That will ensure your peace of mind along the way. Only when your monthly writing profits match your regular monthly income should you transition to full-time writing. How long this process takes will depend a lot on you. For one writer, the transition took a year; for another, it took five years. In this book, we'll talk about exactly how they, and many others, did it. More importantly, we'll discuss how you can accomplish the same. YOU'RE IN THE DRIVER'S SEAT Gone are the days when the world's large corporate book publishers set the pace and direction of the entire publishing market. Today, independent authors are now in the driver's seat. The tools are already at your fingertips, and online publishing is the easiest and most affordable way to begin. (And when I say "affordable," I mean almost completely free of charge. Now that's affordable!) Your only necessary cost will be editing, which will be covered in detail in this book. The fact is, if you want your ebook to be accepted by a discerning population of readers, you'll need to hire a proper editor to help you get things right. I'll show you exactly where and how to find one at a price that suits your budget. In fact, the whole process from start to finish-from outlining a full ebook series to publishing it online-will be covered in this book. By the time you're done reading this, you'll know exactly how to publish a book. You'll know what it takes to successfully sell it, too.YOUR SIX-WEEK BLUEPRINT TO SUCCESSThis book contains a repeatable, entirely achievable six-week publishing process-a blueprint you can easily follow no matter what type of book series you wish to publish on the United States of America's Amazon, Canada's Kobo, and even Malaysia's E-Sentral ecommerce sites. It also contains case studies of several highly successful independent authors who are already doing these things and earning massive incomes from it. Read this blueprint in full before you publish. Educate yourself about how this process works before you do anything else. Then make a commitment to yourself to follow through with it. Because it works!
