Tradition and Modernity in Myanmar - Uta Gärtner 1994

In May 1993 noted scholars from eleven countries who share a common interest in Burma/Myanmar irrespective of the considerable diversity of their special fields met on the occasion of the international conference "Tradition and Modernity in Myanmar" organized by the Department of Southeast Asian Studies of the Centre of Asian and African Studies, Humboldt University, Berlin. Their papers on problems of religion, history, politics, ethnicity, language, culture provide a survey of international research work on this country having as their common denominator the role of tradition with special reference to present times. Part one of this two-volume set covers the fields of history and politics, Part two culture, social life, and language.

Excerpt from Burmese Pocket Dictionary: Compiled From Dr. Judson's Dictionaries; English and Burmese; Burmese and English It is considered that this selection of English words, having passed through four successive editions, may well serve as the basis of the present work. The words removed for various reasons about equal the new words added. The Burmese definitions have been compiled afresh, with special reference to the purpose of this work, and will be found to conform strictly to the last edition of Dr. Judson's Burmese and English Dictionary. The Anglicized spelling has been omitted as of questionable utility. The accuracy of this portion is due largely to the assistance rendered in the proof-reading by Rev. F. H. Eveleth, the compiler of the following portion. About the Publisher
